CHELSEA SENIOR
HIGH SCHOOL

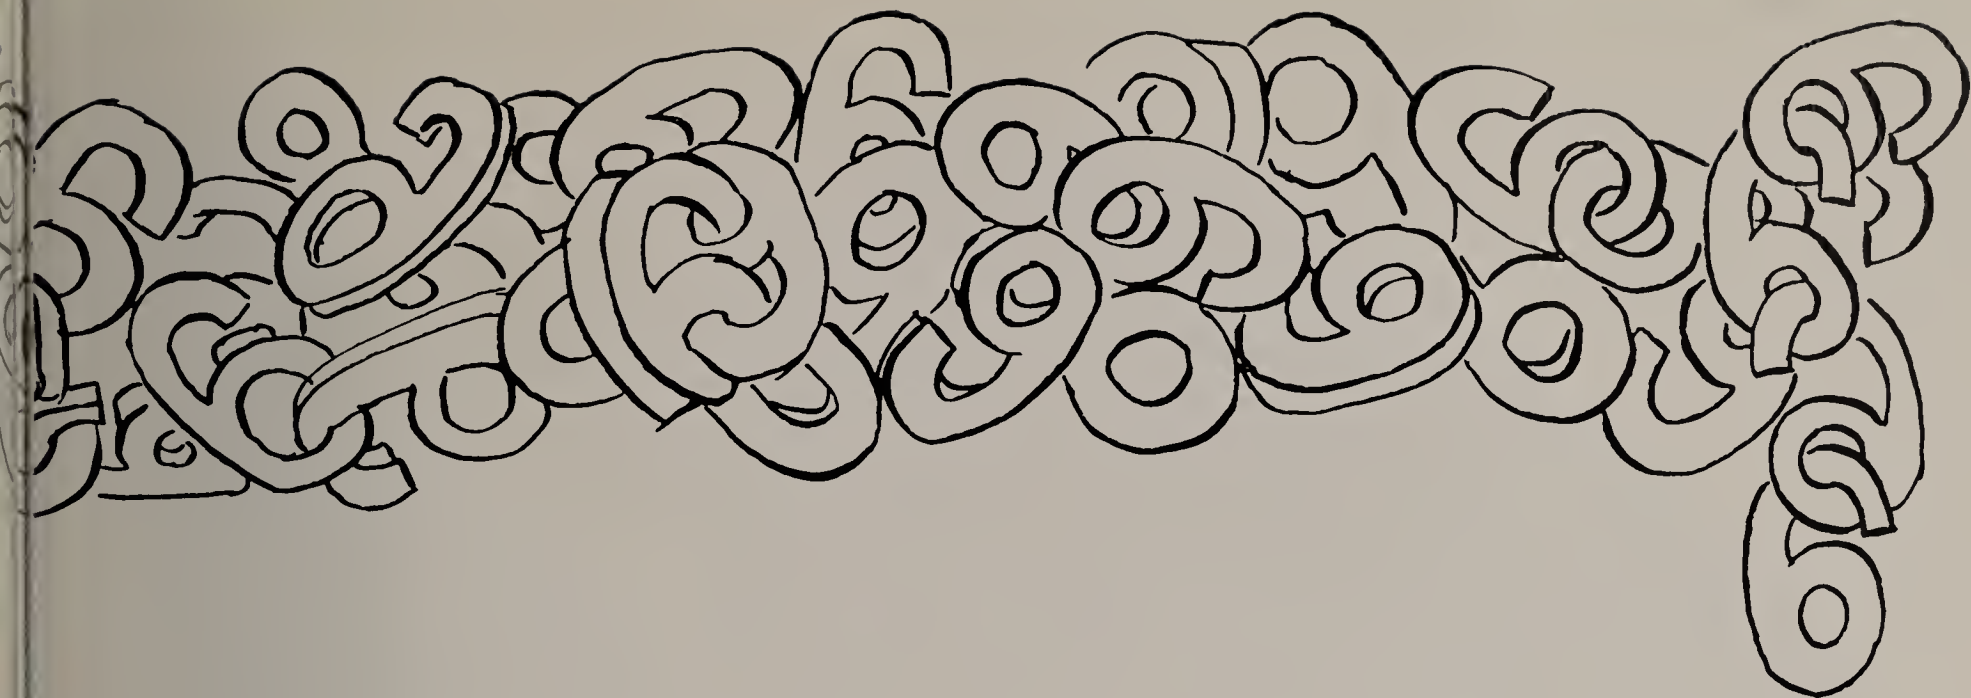

Foreword

Education is a life-long process. Schooling is only part of this life process, but it acts as a guide to the rest. When we understand that what we are taught in high school helps form our values, we realize how important it is that this schooling should aim us in the right direction.

Many feel that society today is aiming in the wrong direction. Too much importance is attached to material things. Too many in our society are interested in power, looking upon knowledge only as a means of attaining this power.

However, there are other values far more important than power. We feel, as our school motto says, "Wisdom is greater than knowledge; character greater than power."

FACULTY

RICHARD SZCZYPEN

Administration

John F. Ridge
Superintendent

Superintendent of Schools, John F. Ridge, is recognized as an outstanding leader in the field of education. Despite the many pressures of his position, Mr. Ridge has always made himself available to discuss any problems with both students and faculty. He has accomplished a great deal in the short time he has been superintendent and our school system is bound to prosper under his guidance. Chelsea is indeed fortunate to have a man of such caliber as the superintendent of its schools.

Nathan T. Margolis
Headmaster

Chelsea High School is proud of its capable and dedicated Headmaster, Mr. Margolis. Mr. Margolis knows the value and purpose of education and is constantly striving to modernize the curriculum and raise our educational standards. He has already accomplished much in his term of office as Headmaster, and will no doubt accomplish even more in the future. Student body and faculty all unite in saying: More power to you, Mr. Margolis!

Edward V. Brown
Master

Warmth, understanding and congeniality are only a few of the words which can be used to express our feelings for Mr. Edward V. Brown. These qualities added to his proven competence, make him an asset to our school. Both students and faculty can feel free to consult him on any matter at any time. The Class of 1969 feels fortunate in having the guidance of such a capable master at Chelsea High School.

Mrs. Mary Sullivan
Administrative Assistant

As Administrative assistant and clerk of the school committee, Mrs. Sullivan is a most valuable asset to our school system. Her knowledge in matters of personnel, finance, and school services contributes greatly to our well being as students in Chelsea High School.

SENIORS

Lena
Ippolito

September, 1966, signified the arrival of about 300 sophomores at Chelsea High School. As naive, unsophisticated adolescents, we were apprehensive about our unfamiliar surroundings. But after several weeks, we became accustomed to the indifference of the seniors, the remarks of the juniors, and the hot lunches in the cafeteria. Adding to all this was the excitement of a fire drill that turned out to be the real thing.

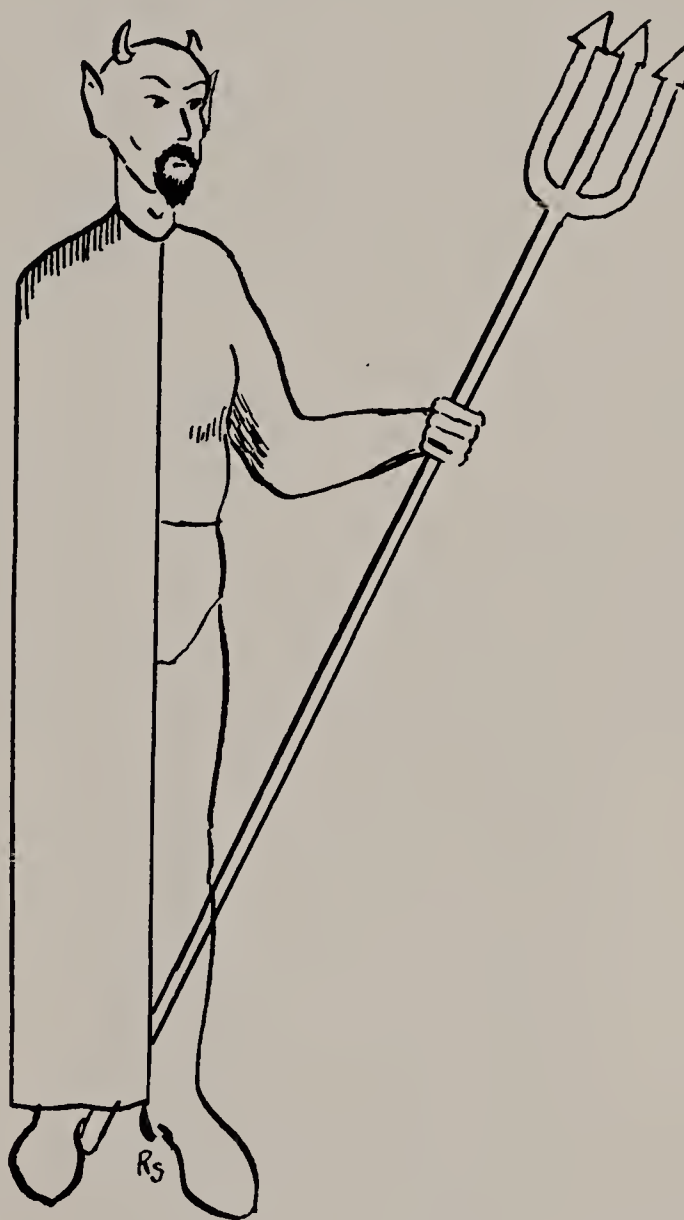

We somehow managed to survive our first year, and we returned to Chelsea High as confident and adjusted juniors. Our first decision involved the selection of class rings. They may not be the most expensive, but they will always be an important part of our happy memories at Chelsea High.

Our next task was the election of capable Junior class officers: Bill Chiaradona, President; Gwen Robinson, Vice President; Jane Fitzpatrick, Secretary; and Joanne Evans, Treasurer. They all carried out their respective jobs admirably and made our junior year a great success.

Finally the big event of the year arrived — the Junior Prom. Through the unselfish acts of the many people involved, our Junior Prom was enjoyed by everyone who attended.

At last, in the fall of 1968, we entered good old Chelsea High for the last time as a class; we were seniors, the cream of the crop. Once again we elected responsible officers: Wayne Mahon, President; Dickie Taraskiewicz, Vice President; Donna Burley, Secretary; and Linda Juliano, Treasurer. We now look to the future with mixed emotions. We also wait excitedly for the completion of our great yearbook, possibly a dinner dance, a variety show, and of course, student government day. Some students wait anxiously for the fall and college, another new experience. Others anticipate new careers and opportunities in various jobs. Now, as we start counting the days until books are collected, rehearsals begin, and graduation follows, we realize that one chapter of our lives is rapidly closing, but another is just beginning.

The knowledge we have acquired, and the friendships we have made will always be with us. Although we will soon be leaving old Chelsea High we are not without wonderful memories.

Head Coach Vincent Apruzzese

This year's C.H.S. football team, under the leadership of new head Coach Vincent Apruzzese, played against some of the best "Class A" teams in the state. Despite a disappointing win-loss record in the G.B.L. there were many outstanding performances by individual players. The CHS co-captains, Conray Antle and Billy Lanzo, along with the rest of the team deserve credit for their enthusiasm and undying spirit and determination. Against great odds each week the team went out on the field and played the best game possible.

First row L. Gallant, J. Bruno, J. Arsenault, co-captains B. Lanzo, C. Antle, J. Quinn, W. Mahon, B. Hill Second row J. Gallant, F. Batchelor, G. Struckel, R. Norftill, Coach V. Apruzzese, B. Charidonna, R. Parow, M. Trainor, J. Hubner

This year's CHS basketball team was hampered by a lack of height. But with each successive game, Coach Fred Garabedian's squad, led by co-captains Todd Nechtem and Richard Taraskiewicz, gained valuable experience battling some of the best basketball teams in Greater Boston. This experience and the team's great spirit have made every game a challenge for every opponent of the CHS basketball team.

Coach F. Garabedian

The 1968-69 Red Devils' hockey team was the best in recent C.H.S. history. Under the expert supervision of Coach James Stafford, the C.H.S. hockey team has come to be considered a formidable foe by all opponents. Led by Captain Thomas Keating, the team has made hockey an important sport in Chelsea High and has set a high standard of achievement for the future.

The Chelsea High School baseball team, under the capable guidance of coach Joe Bever, upheld its reputation this year as the players made an all-out effort at every game. Despite a discouraging 5-10 season last year, the 1969 squad, led by Captain Richard Taraskiewicz, displayed excellent confidence and school spirit. We are proud of coach Bever and our boys for their enthusiastic team work and sportsmanship.

The Chelsea High School track team, led by Co-Captains Dennis Leonard and Richard Kelly under the inspiring leadership of Mr. Berenson, lives up to its traditional excellence and lively school spirit. Whatever the problems of the past there is always the enthusiasm of the present and the optimism of the future. Win or lose, our team and veteran coach stimulate good sportsmanship and esprit de corps in Chelsea High School.

Track

Regardless of the time, the weather, or the team's record, the cheerleaders were always there inspiring the crowds with their enthusiasm. Under the able supervision of Miss Beverly Corwin, the cheering squad entertained the crowds and provided the most important element of all-school spirit.

Cheerleaders

First row S. Cassidy, C. Adams, G. Robinson, co-captain; S. Hoffman, captain; D. Bradley, co-captain; N. Ferrin, D. Countie, Second row J. Evans, M. Beggelman, A. DiBenedetto, C. Szpuk, D. Vahey, G. Parks, L. Decowski, D. Keefe

The Chelsea Senior High School majorettes are a group of spirited and talented baton-twirlers who continually delight sports fans with their skillful performances. Under the direction of Miss B. Corwin, Dr. G. Ottavi; and the leadership of their award-winning captain, Debra Stawicki, this year's majorettes have practiced hard to deserve the praise they received and have not failed to brighten many of Chelsea High School's Athletic exhibitions.

Majorettes

Chelsea High School's girls' basketball team, through the able coaching of Miss Beverly Corwin, has made many advances. The most outstanding achievement is the ability of the girls to control the ball, score and defend. Though few in number, the girls on the team have more than made up for this with their enthusiasm. The team has proven itself most remarkable on both offense and defense, and their opponents have found this group of girls most formidable on the basketball court.

Officers: First row: W. Socha, Chairman, R. Norftill, Vice-Chairman. Second row: Mr. R. Pucko, Advisor, S. Phillips, Vice-Chairman, S. Seigal, Vice-Chairman.

During the first few weeks of school a selected group of boys, under the leadership of Mr. Roman Pucko, spends a great deal of time familiarizing themselves with all types of projection and amplification equipment. These boys spend their study periods supplying projection screens, filmstrips, and projectors to the various rooms. They also help the teachers run their programs by assisting them in the proper uses of the machines. The services that the club performs have helped the students of Chelsea High gain a better understanding of the materials discussed in class.

Under the expert direction of Dr. Guido Ottavi, Director of instrumental music in Chelsea, the Chelsea High School band is one of the most active organizations in the high school. Besides playing at all the assemblies, it appears at all the football games, no matter how bad the weather may be. To prepare for their performances, the band spends a lot of time practicing — every day during the football season, and three days a week during the rest of the school year. The members of the band and Dr. Ottavi certainly should be congratulated for their contribution to our High School spirit.

Beacon

What is our yearbook? It is a permanent record of our high school years to be referred to whenever we become nostalgic for our days at C.H.S. Our staff feels that the Beacon fulfills this purpose, for between its covers you will find many memories of classmates, clubs, athletic events, social functions, class elections, and other activities in which the class of 1969 has participated. We hope that the Beacon will meet your expectations and that you will regard it forever as a reminder of our wonderful days at Chelsea High School.

The 68-69 Drama Club at Chelsea Senior High School under the direction of Mrs. Patricia Belfer, has opened the door to the world of theatrical arts for many of our high school students. The purpose of the organization is to instruct its members in all the phases of drama. To aid this process the club's members witness professional plays appearing within the Boston area, and also give their own presentations. It is their sincere hope that the Drama Club will set a precedent for fine performances in the future.

Chelsea High School's Mathematics Honor Society, is composed of students who maintain averages of B or higher in math in the College and Academic Courses. Under the supervision of Mrs. Alice Sandberg, its primary purpose is to promote a lively interest in the study of mathematics and to bring together students bound by a common appreciation of the importance of mathematics in the modern world. Members of GAT participate in thoughtful, informative discussions, solve complex problems, and listen to lectures by guest speakers. All find the meetings challenging, beneficial, and enjoyable.

The Chelsea High School Honor Society is a branch of the National Honor Society and has set its requirements according to the official standards. These are rather rigid, for members are chosen not only on the basis of their scholastic achievement but also on the basis of their leadership, service and character. Therefore, members must keep on their toes. Mr. Irving Schwartz, the club advisor, has many ideas for programs which stimulate an interest in the society. The organization has been very active and is proud of its high standards and ideals.

The Chelsea High School endeavors to further the cause of brotherhood by being of service to all who need it. To accomplish this, the Junior Red Cross, under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Sullivan, sponsors programs throughout the school year by which students can make contributions of money or other desirable items. Students respond gladly when given these opportunities to aid the needy, and help the Junior Red Cross to attain its goal.

Library Staff

The entire Library Staff under Mrs. Kennedy is an essential part of Chelsea High School. Mrs. Kennedy has done a great deal to improve our library in order to help our students. The staff is always ready to help students find a book, or to direct them to sources of information. We are thankful to Mrs. Kennedy and her Library Staff for making our studying more pleasant and easier to accomplish.

In this age of supersonic jets, nuclear fission, and intricate computers, science has been attracting more and more people into its various fields. A Science Club is a means whereby students can be introduced to the various sciences through experimentation and discussion. The club serves to keep scientific curiosity sharp and high at Chelsea High School.

"Man's social, cultural, and natural environments will all have great influences upon his life." With this statement in mind, members of the Sociology Club strive to attain a worldly knowledge of their surroundings.

Under the capable supervision of Mr. Gilbert Cherry, this group has the distinction of being Chelsea High's newest club — for the club held its first meeting in September 1968. Aspiring to learn more about the various cultures which exist in the world today, the Sociology Club has planned interesting field trips and many stimulating discussions.

The Spanish Club has always been a busy club. It is being counseled by Mrs. Montesano and Mrs. Finkelstein, and the members are always eager to participate.

The highlight of our Junior Year was the Junior Prom. It will be long remembered by the one hundred couples who attended it at the Polish-American Veteran's Hall, on Friday, April 26, 1968.

Much credit is due Mr. Vincent Apruzzese, the junior class advisor, who did such an excellent job in planning the affair, and the following class officers who assisted him: William Chiaradonna, president; Gwen Robinson, vice-president; Joanne Evans, treasurer; and Jane Fitzpatrick, secretary.

Elections

Once again class elections came and went. Members of the senior class showed off their voices at the student rally, and their opinions in the voting. The elected officers, under the guidance of Mr. Vincent Appruzzese, senior class advisor, were responsible for organizing and conducting our class activities for the senior year. It was an exciting year filled with many pleasant experiences.

Thanksgiving Rally

On Wednesday, November 27, the students of C.H.S. assembled for the annual Thanksgiving rally. For the class of "69" this year's rally was one of the best it had ever seen. Throughout the program the students displayed boundless enthusiasm and optimism, engendering high hopes for a victory over Everett. The talented soloists, the boy and girl cheerleaders, the majorettes, and the girl masters of the gridiron provided the audience with much amusement and laughter. Most important of all, the rally inspired the Red Devils to go out and "Beat Everett" in spirit and good sportsmanship, if not in touchdowns.

Variety Show

"Variety is the spice of life," and there was plenty of it in the production put on by the Chelsea High School students in March, 1969. Under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Sartorelli and ably assisted by Mr. James Barooshian, the participants were only too willing to display their talents, and the results were highly amusing and entertaining. If there was any doubt before, there is none now that "there's no business like show business."

Mayor and School Committee

For the fourteenth consecutive year, under the watchful eyes of Mr. Leader, Mr. Berenson, and Mr. Barooshian, the seniors of Chelsea High took over the reigns of our city government on February 12, 1969. After a guided tour of the Chelsea Public Library by Mr. Minandakis, the student officials were sworn into their respective offices by City Clerk John P. Dalis. Fortified with a hearty meal served by the Chelsea Lodge of Elks, the various officers eagerly assumed their respective duties. Let it never be said that February 12, 1969, was not the most efficient and remarkable day in the history of our city government.
